

COSF Scholars 2006

Grosvenor Oxford Award

Zhu Mengyao was awarded £7,500. She will attend the Said Business School and pursue an MSc in Financial Economics. Mengyao graduated from Peking University's Guanghua School of Management with a Bachelor's Degree in Finance and a Minor in Statistics. Mengyao has participated in a number of overseas exchange programmes in Europe, the US, and Taiwan. She hopes to pursue a business career possibly in cross-border mergers and acquisitions.

Zhu Mengyao

Tang Oxford Award

Chen Jingjing was awarded £8,000. She will attend the Said Business School and study for a Masters in Business Administration. Jingjing graduated from the Beijing Language University with a Bachelor's Degree in teaching Chinese as a foreign language. Jingjing worked as a senior producer for the English-language channel at CCTV, the Central Government-run television station. Jingjing hopes to make a positive influence in China as she progresses in her media career.

Chen Jingjing

Johnny Hon China Scholarship

Zhang Zhe was awarded £10,000. He was accepted to St Anne's College and will pursue a Master's Degree in Law. Zhe graduated from the Shanghai Institute of Foreign Trade with a Bachelor's Degree in Business English. He later earned his Master's Degree from Peking University. He has extensive Chinese Government experience having worked as the Deputy Divisional Director in the Department of European Affairs of the Ministry of Commerce. He aspires to help China manage its trade conflicts in accordance with international laws and practices.

Zhang Zhe

Johnny Hon China Scholarship

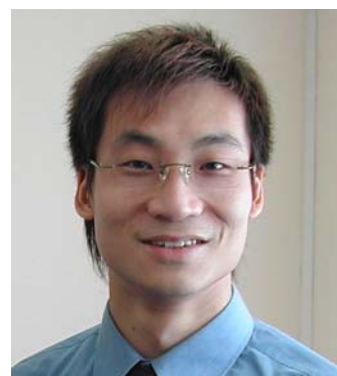

Stella Wang Wei was awarded £10,000. She has been accepted into St Edmund Hall and will pursue an MPhil in Economics. Stella graduated from Fudan University with a Master's Degree in Economics in the area of Investment and Financial Industry. She earned a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration also at Fudan.

Stella Wang Wei

China Oxford Award

David Chan Yiu-Leung was awarded £8,000. He has been accepted into Wolfson College and will be studying for DPhil in Clinical Medicine. David graduated from the Chinese University of Hong Kong with a Master of Philosophy in Neurosurgery. He attended Ulster University in Britain earning a Bachelor of Science Degree in Biotechnology. David secured first class honours at the Hong Kong Technical College with a higher diploma in Applied Biology.

David Chan Yiu-Leung

China Oxford Award

Lo Yuen-Yi was awarded £8,000. She was accepted to St Hilda's College and will be pursuing an MSc in Applied Linguistics and Second Language Acquisitions. Yuen-Yi graduated from the University of Hong Kong with a Bachelor's Degree in Education in English Language. She is one of Hong Kong's top students academically receiving straight "A's" in both "O" and "A" levels and a first class honours degree from the HKU.

Lo Yuen-Yi

China Oxford Award

Lu Yu was awarded £8,000. He graduated from South China Normal University with a Bachelor's Degree in Information and Computational Science. Accepted by St Cross College, Yu will be pursuing an MSc in Mathematical Modelling and Scientific Computing.

Lu Yu