

2024-2025 CHINA OXFORD SCHOLARS

JIASHU SHEN - Tang Oxford Award in STEM

Jiashu is a 2nd year DPhil student in Clinical Medicine and is attending St Hilda's College. His research at the Nuffield Department of Medicine is focused on the treatment of asthma. He earned a first-class BSc in Medicine from Peking University.

YIXUAN LIU - Hoare Family Award

Yixuan is an MSc student in Digital Scholarship and is attending Regent's Park College. Her research is on digital scholarly editing. She earned her BA in Comparative Literature at University College London.

QIANQIAN YANG - Wang Family Foundation Scholarship

Qianqian is a first year DPhil student in Women's and Reproductive Health and is attending Wolfson College. Her research is on cardiovascular disease. She earned her BSc in Clinical Medicine from Nanjing Medical University and her MSc in Internal Medicine at Jiao Tong University School of Medicine in Shanghai.

ZEREN JIANG - Wang Family Foundation Scholarship

Zeren is a first-year DPhil student in Engineering Science and is attending Balliol College. His research is on AI and human-centred 3D foundation models. He earned his BEng in Software Engineering and his BSc in Mathematics and Applied Mathematics at Beihang University in Beijing. Zeren attained a first-class MSc in Computer Science at the ETH Swiss Federal Institute of Technology in Zurich.

YUHAN LI—Wei Oxford Award

Yuhan is a first-year DPhil student in Biology and is attending St Peter's College. Her research at Oxford is on the conservation of bio-diversity in China's national parks. She has an MPhil in Biology at Oxford and was a Rhodes Scholar. At Peking University, she earned her BA in Law, Philosophy, Politics and Economics.

GULIJAYINA WUSUFUKAN - Pay It Forward Scholarship

Gulijayina is a first-year DPhil student in International Development and is attending Kellogg College. Her research is on NGOs' state relations in international decision-making. Gulijayina earned MA in Public Administration at Fudan University and in International Development at Sciences Po in Paris. She has BA degrees in Public Management from Korea University in Seoul and in Human Resources Management from Renmin University.

YUANYUAN CHEN - Pay It Forward Award in Medicine

Yuanyuan is a first-year MPhil student in Population Health and is attending Reuben College. Her research is on proteins and their possible correlations with diseases. Yuanyuan obtained her BSc in Psychology from Peking University and an MSc in Epidemiology and Biostatistics also at Peking University.

ANGIE ON YI HO - Spirit of Hong Kong Scholarship

Angie is pursuing a Bachelor of Civil Law and is attending Keble College. She holds double degrees in BBA and LLB from the University of Hong Kong. Her interest is in restitution of unjust enrichment, and intellectual property law especially as related to AI.

LOK CHI WONG - Thomas Wong Scholarship

Lok Chi is an MSc student in Child Development and Education and is attending St Hilda's College. She will explore the situation of children with special educational needs (SEN) and the reciprocal and dynamic relationship between their literacy and emotional development to design tailor-made pedagogies to support them. She earned her BA and Bed in Language Education (English) from the University of Hong Kong.

XINGNI LI - Yan Oxford Award

Xingni is a first-year MPhil student in Linguistics, Philology and Phonetics and is attending Worcester College. Her research is on the language contact amongst various ethnic groups in the Guangxi Zhuang Autonomous Region in China. She obtained her BA in Chinese Languages from Peking University.

DANIEL TSZ SHING LEI - Brian Keelan Award

Daniel is a first-year DPhil student in Music and is attending Merton College. His research is on musical nationalism and post-coloniality over the past century in China and the greater Sinosphere. He earned his BA in Music from the University of Hong Kong. At the University of London, Daniel holds an MA in Ethnomusicology from the School of Oriental and African Studies and an MA in Music (Performance and Related Studies) at Goldsmith's College.

YUBO CAI - China Oxford Award

Yubo is an MSc student in Mathematical Sciences (OMMS) and is attending Kellogg College. His research is on developing mathematical planning models to aid health care professionals' decision making in medical situations. He earned a first-class BSc (double major) in Mathematics and Computer Science and the Ecole Polytechnique in France.

ZIYI YAN - China Oxford Award

Ziyi is an MSc student in African Studies and is attending Oriel College. Her research is on the impact of digital payment systems in East Africa and how they might impact poverty and marginalised communities such as rural households and women. She holds an MPhil in Anthropology from Sun Yat-Sen University in Guangzhou. She earned a BA in Swahili from the University of Dar es Salaam and a BA in Swahili & Advertisement Studies from the Communication University of China in Beijing.

TAO LIU - Honorary China Oxford Award

Tao is a first year DPhil student in Clinical Neurosciences and is attending Wolfson College. His research is on exploring stable brain dynamics in Parkinson's patients pre- and post-treatment. Tao holds an MSc degree with distinction in Biomedical Engineering from Imperial College London and a BEng in Biomedical Engineering from Beihang University.

KENNETH KIN YAT IP - Honorary China Oxford Award

Kenneth is pursuing a Bachelor of Civil Law and is attending St Hilda's College. He is interested in policy-making and law reform in Hong Kong. Kenneth holds a PCLL and an LLB from the University of Hong Kong.

CHENQING AN - Honorary China Oxford Award

Chenqing is a 2nd-year MPhil student in Egyptology and is attending University College. His research is on the ancient Egyptian language and papyrology. He earned his MA in Ancient History at University College London. Chenqing holds a BA in History at the Minzu University of China in Beijing. In 2023, Chenqing was awarded the Brian Keelan Scholarship.